

AMINE GHOUL

President, DTCare Lebanon

Amine Ghoul is well-traveled which enables him to see challenging and political situations from a global perspective. Ghoul has extensive experience in strategy consulting, project management, client and government relations, business development, strategic planning, business forecasting, and team development.

Ghoul is the president of DTCare Lebanon; his passion for his country and expertise facilitates and throttles DTCare's central mission to help the people of Lebanon. He also fulfills the roles of government liaison and public relations representative at DTCare's regional office in the Middle East. Ghoul oversees and advises on matters concerning nationals, ex-pats, local NGOs and partners, contributors, and benefactor communication.

